Welcome Back Birdies

Shaking off that winter rust takes time, but every once in a while the old barn door swings like it used to or the putter seems to slide into the ball just right - and voila - that magical first bird of the year. That's what we're rewarding this week - Net Birdies. Treat them like Easter Eggs and begin the hunt.

People with 5 or more net birdies will share in a $50 pool. If you're lucky enough to fluke in an eagle - that counts as a birdie too. A look at last year's cards says there will be 4 or 5 of you, so make your quota and you stand a chance of making ten bucks. Plus you get to play golf.

Welcome Back.
